

artist musa'D

About the artist

South African artist, Musa'D was born in the 1980s in Mbombela, Mpumalanga province. He is a dedicated father to two daughters, Mbali and Nocolo, who have been the driving force behind his passion for art.

His art is inspired by the formation of the evolution of South Africa and its people. It expresses his love for his culture and the beauty of African landscapes, and tells stories of the people, places, and experiences that have shaped his life.

Musa'D is currently homeless and a beneficiary of Cross the Divide, a not-for-profit organisation committed to uplifting the lives of those in need through community initiatives and effective rehabilitation programs. By partnering with local residents and businesses, we strive to build a connected, safe, and inclusive community where everyone can thrive.

Donate to Cross the Divide today!

Banking details:
Cross the Divide - Ward 90 NPO
FNB account: 62939980787

Contact Dianne Webb
082 854 2583
info@crossdivide.org.za
www.crossdivide.org.za

artist musa'D

About the artist

South African artist, Musa'D was born in the 1980s in Mbombela, Mpumalanga province. He is a dedicated father to two daughters, Mbali and Nocolo, who have been the driving force behind his passion for art.

His art is inspired by the formation of the evolution of South Africa and its people. It expresses his love for his culture and the beauty of African landscapes, and tells stories of the people, places, and experiences that have shaped his life.

Musa'D is currently homeless and a beneficiary of Cross the Divide, a not-for-profit organisation committed to uplifting the lives of those in need through community initiatives and effective rehabilitation programs. By partnering with local residents and businesses, we strive to build a connected, safe, and inclusive community where everyone can thrive.

Donate to Cross the Divide today!

Banking details:
Cross the Divide - Ward 90 NPO
FNB account: 62939980787

Contact Dianne Webb
082 854 2583
info@crossdivide.org.za
www.crossdivide.org.za

artist musa'D

About the artist

South African artist, Musa'D was born in the 1980s in Mbombela, Mpumalanga province. He is a dedicated father to two daughters, Mbali and Nocolo, who have been the driving force behind his passion for art.

His art is inspired by the formation of the evolution of South Africa and its people. It expresses his love for his culture and the beauty of African landscapes, and tells stories of the people, places, and experiences that have shaped his life.

Musa'D is currently homeless and a beneficiary of Cross the Divide, a not-for-profit organisation committed to uplifting the lives of those in need through community initiatives and effective rehabilitation programs. By partnering with local residents and businesses, we strive to build a connected, safe, and inclusive community where everyone can thrive.

Donate to Cross the Divide today!

Banking details:
Cross the Divide - Ward 90 NPO
FNB account: 62939980787

Contact Dianne Webb
082 854 2583
info@crossdivide.org.za
www.crossdivide.org.za

artist musa'D

About the artist

South African artist, Musa'D was born in the 1980s in Mbombela, Mpumalanga province. He is a dedicated father to two daughters, Mbali and Nocolo, who have been the driving force behind his passion for art.

His art is inspired by the formation of the evolution of South Africa and its people. It expresses his love for his culture and the beauty of African landscapes, and tells stories of the people, places, and experiences that have shaped his life.

Musa'D is currently homeless and a beneficiary of Cross the Divide, a not-for-profit organisation committed to uplifting the lives of those in need through community initiatives and effective rehabilitation programs. By partnering with local residents and businesses, we strive to build a connected, safe, and inclusive community where everyone can thrive.

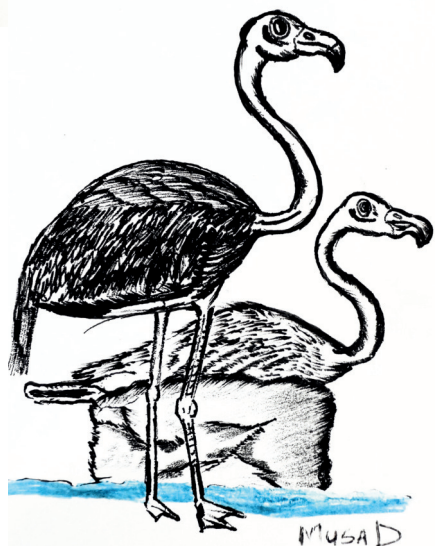

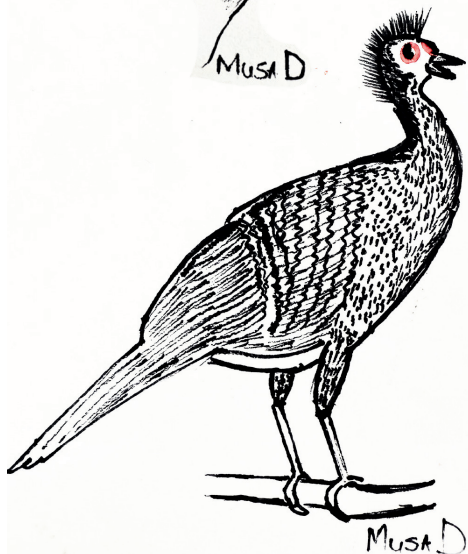

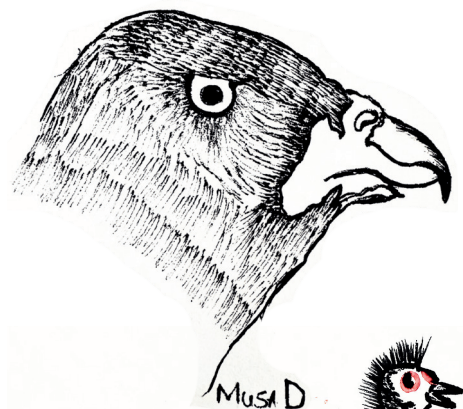

Donate to Cross the Divide today!

Banking details:
Cross the Divide - Ward 90 NPO
FNB account: 62939980787

Contact Dianne Webb
082 854 2583
info@crossdivide.org.za
www.crossdivide.org.za

About the artist

South African artist, Musa'D was born in the 1980s in Mbombela, Mpumalanga province. He is a dedicated father to two daughters, Mbali and Nocolo, who have been the driving force behind his passion for art.

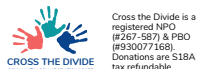

His art is inspired by the formation of the evolution of South Africa and its people. It expresses his love for his culture and the beauty of African landscapes, and tells stories of the people, places, and experiences that have shaped his life.

Musa'D is currently homeless and a beneficiary of Cross the Divide, a not-for-profit organisation committed to uplifting the lives of those in need through community initiatives and effective rehabilitation programs. By partnering with local residents and businesses, we strive to build a connected, safe, and inclusive community where everyone can thrive.

Donate to Cross the Divide today!

Snap here to donate

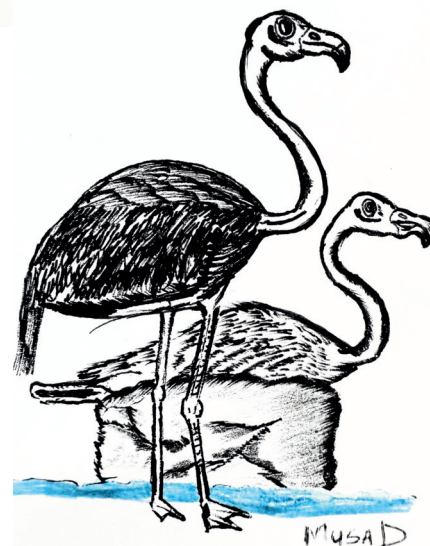

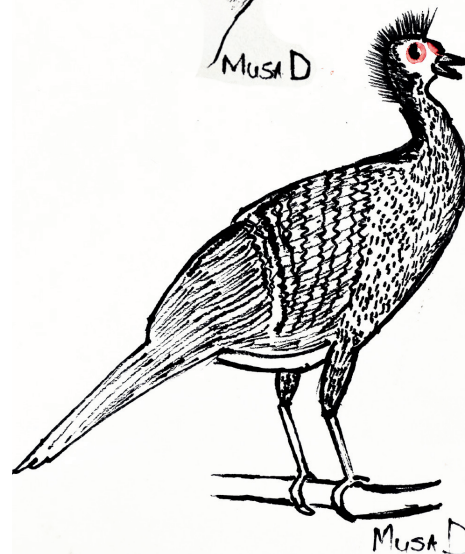

Cross the Divide is a registered NPO (#267-587) & PBO (#930077168). Donations are S18A tax refundable.

By supporting us, you help a range of initiatives aimed at up uplifting the less fortunate.

Banking details:
Cross the Divide
- Ward 90 NPO
FNB account:
62939980787

Contact Dianne Webb
082 854 2583
info@crossdivide.org.za
www.crossdivide.org.za

About the artist

South African artist, Musa'D was born in the 1980s in Mbombela, Mpumalanga province. He is a dedicated father to two daughters, Mbali and Nocolo, who have been the driving force behind his passion for art.

His art is inspired by the formation of the evolution of South Africa and its people. It expresses his love for his culture and the beauty of African landscapes, and tells stories of the people, places, and experiences that have shaped his life.

Musa'D is currently homeless and a beneficiary of Cross the Divide, a not-for-profit organisation committed to uplifting the lives of those in need through community initiatives and effective rehabilitation programs. By partnering with local residents and businesses, we strive to build a connected, safe, and inclusive community where everyone can thrive.

Donate to Cross the Divide today!

Snap here to donate

Cross the Divide is a registered NPO (#267-587) & PBO (#930077168). Donations are S18A tax refundable.

By supporting us, you help a range of initiatives aimed at up uplifting the less fortunate.

Banking details:
Cross the Divide
- Ward 90 NPO
FNB account:
62939980787

Contact Dianne Webb
082 854 2583
info@crossdivide.org.za
www.crossdivide.org.za

